Superintendents

The various tasks performed by the superintendents keep the school in perfect working order. Year round, these gentlement are constantly engaged in activities that will benefit the students, teachers, parents and administrators. Their duties range from ordering supplies and equipment to consultations with teachers and principals. A final and most important responsibility involves their maintaining a rapport between the school board and the school itself.

One Part Businessman & Two Parts

The position of high school principal requires education, dedication, and patience Dr Norman B L. Ferguson once again seated behind the main desk is abundantly qualified in all these areas. He is able and always willing to discuss a viproblem or event with a student parent, or faculty member. The assistance of Mr Van S. Evange vice-principal, helps to alleviate many of the demanding responsibilities placed upon Dr Ferguson. Their burden is considerably eased by the assistance of Mr Machael DiGiulio. Mr Theodore Breik and Mr Donald Ross.

Teachers in Action

The members of Ridley's faculty are constantly on the go. Classes . . . meetings . . . homework papers outside activities. The position of teacher requires dedication and an incredible amount of time. Despite their heavy schedules, Ridley's teachers still manage to find time to deal with each student's individual problems - the result being a blend of deep satisfaction and appreciation

This year, along with the return of 25 veterans, Ridley saw a new crop of players. Drawn together by loyalty, these boys progressed and matured under the tutelage of their head coaches Mr. Marion and Mr. McNicholas, Although the season ended with a record of 5 wins, 2 losses and 3 ties, the enthusiam of the team as well as that of the spectators remained undaunted

Although soccer was primarily a European sport, the spirit has caught on at Ridley and produced one of the finest teams in the league According to Coach Jack Preston, our soccer team has not had one losing season since 1954 Ridley's success can be attributed to the skilled players who comprise the team, and the hours of practice that go behind each game Backed by the interest and spirit of the students, our soccer team proves that the Big Green always finishes on top

The groups of boys seen running energetically around the school are not lost souls nor have they missed the bus. They are missed the bus. They are missed the Bus. They are missed cross country competition. Incredible though it may seem, these boys run an average of thirty miles a week in all types of weather. Despite this, the boys still manage to maintain their spirit and willing attitude through every long mile. Apily coached by Mr. Richard Withelder, our team displays sportsmanship, and ability which are sustained from the starting point to the finish line.

Befuddled are vou? For all those people who aren't familiar with the latest hockey-lingo the preceding names are for some of Ridley's varsity field hockey players.

Filled with the spirit to win and the enthusiasm to play, this energetic group of girls can be seen practicing after school promptly at 3.30. Driving, scooping, dribbling and dodging is a way of life to this gang. Although they have had their share of bruises and sore muscles these girls possess a pride in their team which keeps them striving for victory.

Dear Ridley High School Student Body

Did you know that there is a bowling team at Ridley? We the members, are organized into a team and have games every Wednesday after school throughout the year. You may not have beard of us, because our games are held away from school. Although we have been given proper credit and publicity, many do not know we exist, because we are never practicing at Ridley. WE ARE ALIVE AND WILL.

Gymnastics which is an extremely graceful and entertaining sport to watch requires strength, coordination and agility. Headed by Mr. Preston, Ridlev's gymnists practice individual moves until perfection is achieved, and then combine these moves into individual routines. The results are displayed at the meets, where the polished performances, after weeks of practice, are entered into a stiff competition. Both during practice and competition Ridley's team members have displayed their labor dedication and sportsmanship.

As Ridley Goes Marching On

The sounds of one, two, one, two... may give you the impression that a math class is in session however, upon a closer observation you will find Ridley's drill team captain striving for perfection in marching routines. Half-times, community parties and band competitions provide the opportantly for these girls to display their unique talents

The Color Guard gathers its forces before leaving the game

"... And Raise Our Banners High..."

While displaying the national and school colors as their performances, the members of the color guard also domains imaginative and entertaining routines. They are one of the many attractions that make our half-times pleasant for all

Twirling Terpsichoreans

Throwing a twithing baton into the air and catching it gracefully would be a rather difficult act to most people; however, our twirlers perform this feat as part of their usual routine. Having mastered twirling and drill skills, the twirlers decided to strive toward new heights this year by combining their numble use of the baton with dance routines. This added attraction in conjunction with background band music has contributed much to Ridley's halftime action

An Easter Egg

The purpose of the girls' variety (fub is to honor those girls who have earned one or more variety letters as a manager or as a team player. As fund-raising activities, the members of this club supply Ridley students with such goodies as Easter candy, football programs, mums for Thanksgiving and Green Raider sweatshirts. The money from these sales is contributed to a scholarship fund which is awarded to a member who has shown outstanding character and service to the school

Honoring students who have excelled academically is not the only purpose of the National Honor Society Along with scholastic achievement this society requires its members to be well-rounded individuals in such areas as character, leadership and service. New members who have been chosen by teachers and administrators on the basis of these criteria are inducted each spring. With this induction goes the responsibilities of such service activities as tutoring students in need of help. The organization give students the incentive and opportunity to continue with their outstanding goals and achievements.

Lights! Camera! Action!

To learn how to operate cameras and sound equipment and how to discuss different types of film are several reasons why you should join filmmakers. The club members learn camera techniques by shooting their own films and viewing the final product. The combining of knowledge, experience and fun while producing films that are interesting and entertaining is the main object of filmmakers.

What coes it have to produce one single book in an entire year's time? First of all, it requires about twenty-five hard-working individuals with a lot of spare time and enthusiasm. This group of individuals must consist of artists, photographers, typists, writers, business students and accountants to handle the various types of material included in the vearbook and to finance and manage the staff Next, it takes giving up study halls, time before and after school and taking work home.

Aside from simply completing the work, meetings must be organized and attended, deadlines must be met, a myriad of papers must be exchanged and thousands of dollars for business purposes must be transacted binally, when everything is completed—every body copy typed and every picture developed—two final elements are necessary

This year's Scott's Hi-Q team has proven to be one of the most successful in Ridley's history. Susan Walton, Michael Takaes, Rebecca Bisbing and Edward Subashi, the four players who have competed in the meets, relied upon their competitive spirit and their ability to draw quickly upon their great resources of knowledge to answer the many questions fired upon them. The other members of the team who served as alternates include John Baker, Valerie Rinaldt, Gerry Hopper and Jim Naber.

The purpose of the team is to provide academic competition and as the moderator of the meet, Bill Kuster would say, "Knowledge is power" This being his first year as sponsor, Mr DelVescovo can be proud of the achievements made by the team in this competition of knowledge and wits

After the initial shock of entering a school so large, sophomores settled down to the serious business of electing class officers for the 1972-73 school year. Once having the security of leadership, they began working on their main fund-raising activity — the sale of magazines. The money raised from these sales went toward class-sponsored activities such as the class party and the Soph Hop Not only did the money contribute to these class activities, but also the students' dedication in carrying out these plans helped their class make a good beginning at Ridley High

December 9th found a gathering of juniors in cafeteria A enjoying themselves at their annual class party. Once again the members of the Class of '74 celebrated the beginning of another school year by "rockin" to the music, talking with old friends, making new acquaintances and just having a good time. All of these factors helped to make the junior class party the total success that it was

A Night to Remember

Question. Name a place where students can sing, dance and yell without getting on the nerves of parents and teachers

Answer THE SENIOR CLASS PARTY

Breaking the monotonous syndrone of schoolwork, books homework and teachers, the Class of '73 celebrated their last class party. The success of this get-together cannot be measured by such tangibles as the traditional "Linbo" and dance contests nor by the excitement generated by the combo THIRD FROM THE END, rather it was, is and will be measured by the sheer delight of a special time, place and group
